Have a Good Stand.

The Record urges the directors of the fair to erect a good stand for the band this year. The arrangement last year was a complete failure, the canvass covering completely killing the sound. The band should be placed either alongside the seats for spectators, or the present stand made about ten or fifteen feet higher. This should not be overlooked, as the music will be a complete failure on the present stand.

BOURNE.

B F Robinson was receiving lambs here Monday at 6 cents.

J H Turner sold a nice mare to Danville parties for $125.

S N Morford sold a bunch of hogs to S Morgan at $5.70 per hundred.

Miss Lou K Duncan spent last week with friends at Buena Vista.

Miss Lou Wells, of Jessamine is visiting her aunt Miss Minnie Carpenter.

Miss Edith Montgomery entertained a few friends at a social Monday evening.

Miss Bettie Vaught, of Cincinnati, was visiting Mrs Fox Turner, Friday and Saturday.

Messrs Thos Morford and J P Frank of Danville, were visiting Mr Sam Morford and family.

Mrs Edith Aldridge, of Stanford, has been with her parents Mr and Mrs J P Hamm for several weeks.

PREACHERSVILLE.

Mr N E Milleford had a mule colt to wash off and drown.

Mr James Pettus, of Stanford was here on business last week.

Rev A C Baird preached for Bro Carmical last Sunday at 3 p m.

Mr L C King and family visited Mrs Louisa Holtzclaw last Sunday.

The heavy rain we had last week did considerable damage to the bottom land, and water gates.

Mrs Menifce Elmore and children have been visiting her parents for a day or so.

Bailor C Anderson, who lived at Brodhead has been real sick and was but little improved at last report.

Rev Thos Owens who has been confined to his home for some time was able to get out to preaching Sunday.

B T Luncford, W H Cummins, Ben Holtzclaw and Fred Shaw went to the Kentucky River fishing last week and caught some fine fish.

Mrs Virgie Traylor who has been operated on for the fourth time is doing as well as could be expected, we hope she may soon be out again.

Kentucky Home Coming Week Brevities.

Louisville will be decorated and illuminated as never before—a sea of color by day, a flood of light by night.

Troughout the week there will be home parties and receptions and many clubs and fraternal bodies will keep "open house."

Old familiar hymns will be a special feature of "Till We Meet Again" services on Sunday, June 17.

Nearly every county in the State is making preparations to "put the big pot in the little one" for former residents the week after the big event in Louisville.

The exhibition of relics, which will be limited to Kentucky history, is to contain much to interest all visitors. It will be installed in glass cases in the gymnasium of the new Armory.

All descendants of Daniel Boone are to be shown special attention on the day named in honor of the great pioneer.

Guests' badges are to be distributed from the head quarters assigned to the different counties in the Armory. A special copyright design—celluloid buttons in several colors, depicting Kentucky history, attack by Indians of a fort, bar of music of "My Old Kentucky home," head of Daniel Boone, etc, with two ribbons attached—the badge is very attractive.

The Kentucky Hall of Fame will have portraits of more than 100 sons and daughters of Kentucky who have helped to make the State illustrious.

Two hundred young men from Louisville's high schools have volunteered to act as members of the information bureau. They will meet all trains during the "Week" and give information to visitors.

Bands and orchestras will make the music of the occasion, and in addition choruses will help swell the volume of harmonious sound.

Governor Beckham has appointed a commission to officially represent each county of the State. These commissioners have appointed hostesses and vice commissioners and maids of honor to serve with them at the county headquarters to be established for each county in the Armory, at which former residents will be welcomed and will receive badges.

Louisville's famous organization—"The Kentucky Colonels"—will act as special escort to the distinguished ex-Kentuckians on the program.

Numerous county rallies will be held during the "Week."

The Home Coming Association has arranged with the Baldwins, the successful air-ship demonstrators of the St Louis World's Fair and the Portland Exposition, to exhibit their latest improved air-ship in Louisville during Home Coming week. The High School athletic grounds at Brook and Breckinridge streets, will be used as an aerodrome. The air ship will be exhibited daily from 9 o'clock a. m. to 1 o'clock p. m. On Monday and Tuesday of "Home Coming Week" it will be shown all day. Flights will be made daily, the weather permitting over the entire city.
